Special Note: Read/utilize these handouts. They give you guidance on citing journal articles in your paper.

• Key research terms that may be useful for locating sources ← Start here!
• Use the EvCC Library link to access the databases needed to search for journals.
• How to "read" the front page of a journal article so you can cite it
• APA citation generator

Suggestion: I urge you to print these pages and keep for future classes.

• APA guide (6th) ← Shows how to cite journal articles
• Basics: How to cite in-text and at end-of-paper (References) ← Critical you use this source!
• Standard formatting of a college paper

Reminders:

• Do NOT include the standard assignment heading at top of page. Canvas labels your work.
• Name the submitted file as LastNameFirstIntial1_2 (NameS1_2)
• Print all pages in Times New Roman 12 font.
• Standard for top, bottom and right margins is 1.0 inch.

Special Note: Do NOT abbreviate the titles of journals. If needed, search for the full name of the journal on the Internet
