¹ Submitting your written work early is encouraged. It allows you the opportunity for more time to revise and, in the past, I have noted you are likely to get the most student feedback.

² You are welcome to post 1+ revisions of the Student Response before Sunday. I will not give feedback on revisions, but will grade last version posted. While revising your written work is optional, I strongly encourage you to do so. Be sure to use the feedback of your fellow students as well as that of your instructor.

³ Late Student Responses are accepted until Sunday, but there is a grade penalty.

⁴ You can find a handout showing how to access the instructor feedback here:
